

NEW SEASONS & SERIES COMING TO SCHEDULE IN APRIL

Spring is finally upon us! As the season brings warmer temperatures, fresh air and ample sunlight, WLIW delivers new episodes from your favorite series.

The critically-acclaimed Call the Midwife premieres its sixth season on PBS (Mondays at 8pm premiering April 3), and times, they are a' changin'. It's 1962 in Poplar and social norms are seeing increased liberation for women and the introduction of new government policies. As Nonnatus House strives to help mothers and families cope with the demands of childbearing, disability, disease and social prejudice, the beloved medics must make choices—and fight battles—of their own.

Riveting drama Home Fires returns for a final season, concluding the story of inspirational British women during World War II (Mondays at 9pm premiering April 3). As conflict takes hold and the separation from their husbands, fathers, sons and brothers becomes more painful, the women rely on one another and the friendships forged through village life. Samantha Bond (Downton Abbey) and Francesca Annis (Reckless) return to lead the extraordinary cast.

Cycling back on the screen is Father Brown, ready to solve more mysteries in a fifth season (Tuesdays at 9pm premiering April 4). The titular priest uses intuition and psychology to investigate crimes in the sleepy Cotswold village of Kembleford. This season, a Duke and Duchess visit the village at Christmas time, but the community is thrown into chaos when the couple's baby boy goes missing. When a female author is murdered, Father Brown turns to her novels for guidance. And when a boxer is found dead in suspicious circumstances, Father Brown uncovers a well-planned betting sting. It's a story of deceit and betrayal, but who has been playing whom?

WLIW has also done some spring cleaning, bringing the world's most eccentric department store to your television sets in Are You Being Served? The classic British comedy about Grace Bros and its staff has kept audiences laughing since 1973, and are sure to delight in its new time slot on Fridays at 9:30pm (beginning April 7).

TREASURES OF NEW YORK—CHAUTAUQUA: AN AMERICAN NARRATIVE

The Chautauqua Institution was founded 135 years ago in a remote corner of Western New York as a place of learning, renewal and inspiration. Chautauqua has always been—and continues to be—unique. It is a true utopia, where the arts, philosophy, current events, religion and education synergize and thrive. Treasures of New York—Chautauqua: An American Narrative traces the institution's history and impact, and captures its contemporary essence and energy. From a NASA engineer, a former U.S Supreme Court Justice, renowned authors, scholars and performers, learn what makes Chautauqua one of the most distinctive summer destinations in America.

Archaeologists are mapping underwater ruins of Baiae and piecing together what life was like in this playground for the ancient Roman rich and powerful in Nero's Sunken City. New evidence shows that many of Leonardo da Vinci's ideas and inventions were realized long before he sketched them out in his notebooks — some even 1700 years before him. Find out if he was a copycat in Leonardo: The Man Who Saved Science.

DANITA DELMONTE

Meet the charismatic scientists dedicated to restoring Puerto Rico's rich biological heritage—manatees, parrots, and turtles—in Viva Puerto Rico (above). In the Brazilian wetlands, the mysterious and secretive Giant armadillo digs a new burrow every other night—prime real estate for other animal species. And travel deep into the remote forests of the Kalkalpen National Park in Austria – the largest area of wilderness in the Alps – and discover the return of the lynx after 150 years of absence, a testimony to nature's power of revival.

Former NASA Chief Scientist Waleed Abdalati takes viewers on a global tour of the projects and people on the front lines of citizen science and crowdsourcing. By observing their environment, monitoring neighborhoods, and collecting information about the world around them, citizens, like those above, are helping professional scientists advance knowledge while speeding up innovation.

A Traveller's Bite

Ben Brantley of The New York Times calls Oslo "the stuff of crackling theater." Now, this sweeping and surprisingly funny new play comes to Broadway following its sold-out, Off-Broadway run, featuring Jennifer Ehle, Jefferson Mays and the rest of its critically acclaimed, original cast. Oslo is inspired by the true story of the back-channel talks, unlikely friendships and quiet heroics that led to the 1993 Oslo Peace Accords between the Israelis and Palestinians.

T. CHARLES ERICSSON

With an additional donation, enjoy a pair of tickets on MAY 2 OR MAY 21, plus a post-show talk with the cast. For a list of upcoming WLIW21 events, visit wliw.org/ticketbooth or call 800.767.2121.
