

CLOWNING AROUND ON WLIW

What The New York Times called, “the secret to eternal youth” is coming to the small screen. Tony Award-winners Bill Irwin and David Shiner are coming to your living rooms in Theater Close-Up’s latest offering: Old Hats from Signature Theater in Manhattan. The award-winning team showcase their comedic talents to create a wild and remarkable outing of theater, with the addition of music and lyrics by and featuring Shaina Taub.

Signature enjoyed an extended, sold out run of the show in 2013 and brought it back last year to the thrill of audiences. The production reunites the clowns with original director Tina Landau and introduces their songstress and comic foil Taub, whom the San Francisco Chronicle hailed as “a young Judy Garland meets grown-up Lisa Simpson.”

Using music, technology, and movement, plus other tricks up their respective sleeves, Irwin and Shiner create another wild and remarkable outing of theatre after this dynamic duo’s first collaboration, the Broadway hit Fool Moon.

Irwin won his Tony Award in 2005 for the Broadway/West End revival of Who’s Afraid of Virginia Woolf. He is also the recipient of a National Endowment for the Arts Choreographer’s Fellowship, a Guggenheim, a Fulbright and a MacArthur Fellowship. Clown/playwright David Shiner starred in Cirque du Soleil and as The Cat in the Hat in Seussical: The Musical on Broadway.

Theater Close-Up is dedicated to providing New Yorkers and beyond with unparalleled access to one of the City’s greatest underexposed cultural assets. Watch recent productions Buyer & Cellar, Buried Child, Incident at Vichy and more online.

INGENIOUS ARCHITECTURE, GROUNDBREAKING RESEARCH

In 2006, Columbia University President Lee C. Bollinger announced a plan to establish the Jerome L. Greene Science Center to be, “among the world’s most advanced facilities specializing in the study of the brain.” Today, a brand new, state-of-the-art building designed by Pritzker Prize-winning architect Renzo Piano rises 9-stories above Columbia’s nascent 17-acre Manhattanville Campus. Treasures of New York: Jerome L. Greene Science Center gives audiences an exclusive behind-the-scenes tour of this 450,000 square foot glass research center which contains community engagement spaces as well as 60 laboratories to house some of the world’s leading neuroscientists, including two Pulitzer Prize winners.

The Greene Science Center represents a new age of expansion for the university and is predicted to revolutionize the way the brain is studied.
