

All Hail the Queen!

The image of Queen Victoria seared into popular culture is one of a dour older woman, swathed in black, looking as if she never cracked a smile. So when Jenna Coleman (Doctor Who), a beautiful slip of a woman, portrays her as joyful, it's jolting. At age 18—still known as Alexandrina, and playing with dolls—she is awakened one morning and informed she is now queen of England.

Welcome to the world of Victoria, a new Masterpiece miniseries premiering on WLIW. Boasting grand sets, lush countryside, and political intrigue, the lavish series is one of the highlights of this month's drama line-up.

Following Queen Victoria from her accession to the throne in 1837, through her education in politics, courtship, marriage, and epic 63-year reign, Victoria paints a portrait of a monarch who was raised to be the pawn of her powerful elders, but who wasted no time in showing the empire who was in charge.

The stellar cast includes Rufus Sewell (The Man in the High Castle) as Lord Melbourne, the British prime minister who was Victoria's father figure and intimate friend; Tom Hughes (Dancing on the Edge) as the handsome Prince Albert, who stole Victoria's heart; and Alex Jennings (Churchill's Secret) as Leopold I, King of Belgium, Victoria and Albert's uncle, who dreamed of a dynasty for his obscure royal line.

Also this month, Benedict Cumberbatch returns as super sleuth Sherlock Holmes in Sherlock Season 4 on Masterpiece. In the first of three specials, Holmes is back on British soil, as Watson (Martin Freeman) and his wife, Mary (Amanda Abbington, Mr. Selfridge), prepare for parenthood.

Mercy Street, the acclaimed Civil War drama set in Alexandria, Virginia, returns for a second season. Follow the growing chaos at Mansion House hospital, the precarious position of the Green family, and the changing world of newly freed African Americans. Patina Miller (Pippin) and Bryce Pinkham (A Gentleman's Guide to Love and Murder) are among the new actors and guest stars who join the impressive cast.

TREASURES OF NEW YORK: HAMILTON'S ALBANY

From founding father to Broadway icon, Alexander Hamilton is a remarkable figure who still captivates us today.

Treasures of New York: Hamilton's Albany explores the political genius' life in upstate New York, from marrying into the wealthy Schuyler family to the feud that fueled the duel with Vice President Aaron Burr. This historical documentary also looks at the society and issues that informed some of his most important decisions. The film visits historic locations such as the Schuyler Mansion—home of Revolutionary War General Philip Schuyler and his family—and The First Church, where Reverend Eliphalet Nott delivered a rousing eulogy that helped turn the tide of public opinion against dueling.
